Other Developments for 2011

The Colour of Money Documentary – This powerful documentary will break down the self defeating financial/economic habits of Afrikan people which keeps their communities economically colonised by non-Afrikan ethnic groups. Advertising space still available for front of DVD cover (£300), Back cover (£200) and film credits (£100). Contact Ifayomi on 0770 3004813 or Ifayomi@ntlworld.com for further details

ABDF Investing in the Community – In around the middle of 2011 the ABDF Ltd. will be inviting business proposals from new or existing businesses. Our Business Development Group is developing the full appraisal process so there is need to contact us yet, we will let you know when we are ready to invite proposals.

The ABDF 'Activating and Stimulating Economic Prosperity in the Afrikan Community'. www.abdf.co.uk

Relationship Support Service – This is a practical support service to assist couples who wish to improve the quality of their relationship. Support also available for parents who live apart and wish to improve their communication in parenting their child(ren). N.B. This is not a counselling service.

New Books for 2011 – I am excited to announce that I am working on a new book in partnership with renowned Black Studies tutor and author Robin Walker (author of 'When We Ruled'). This promises to be a powerful publication examining the Afrikan Global Experience. Expected publication date October 2011.

I will also be writing a book on Black Male/Female Relationships providing you with an holistic understanding of preventative and remedial measures to keep; or get a relationship on track.

Remember, if you like what we do support what we do, because those that don't won't!
